Nantong is a small city by Chinese standards - what is known as a second-tier city. But it is a place with a rich and fascinating industrial, social, and cultural heritage. In this book, author David Ferguson tells the story of the city of Nantong through the lives of one great man of the past, Zhang Jian, and thirteen modern business pioneers. Zhang Jian (1853-1926) lived through one of the most volatile periods in modern Chinese history, encapsulating the Sino-Japanese war, the fall of the Qing Dynasty, the last emperor, and the creation of the first republic of China. Zhang played an active role at the highest level in all of this, as a scholar, a politician, an industrialist...
