Excerpt from The Guidon, Vol. 3: Oct;-Nov,, 1906 There was no doubt in the minds of these people as to whether the Grail of the legend was the true cup. They accepted the statement without question, and told the story over and over again. The Holy Grail was the cup Christ used the last time He appeared as a man among His fellows. Later He was raised by His great sacrifice to a plane far above theirs. But when He used this cup, He sat at meat with them; John whom He loved lay on His bosom; all of the disciples talked freely to Him, and He taught the most spiritual truths. Then, too, He instituted forever a memorial of His death, and they drank from this cup the wine which symbolized His blood shed for their sins. Through the whole meal, they had a feeling that they were about to lose Him, and they treasured up in memory every word and look. The legends of the Grail were mingled with those of the loving-cup used by the knights. They...

An incredibly awesome publication with perfect and lucid reasons. It can be written in simple phrases and not confusing. I am just delighted to let you know that this is actually the very best publication I actually have studied during my very own lifestyle and could be the best publication for actually.

-- Paula Gutkowski

The publication is simple to go through preferable to fully grasp. I am quite late in starting reading this one, but better than never. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.
