Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from The Free Will Baptist, Vol. 131: June 2013 There is a picture on my computers. It is a photo of my father. I look at this photo often. It was taken about two summers before my Dad died. My wife and one of our daughters had gone to my parent s home to pick giant blueberries. My dad, though frail and unsteady on his feet, insisted on joining the picking party. He was coming from inside the pack house as I was coming from my car. With camera in hand I asked him to stop. That s how I got this photo. There he is. A cap on his head, a blue plaid shirt and khaki pants adorn his body. A big white bucket is gripped by his left hand. The early morning sun drenches his face with radiant light. A folding chair is in the picture. It will accompany him to the lush berry bushes. I don t think I will ever forget the day. It was a simple day like we d shared hundreds of times before. We worked, talked, laughed, and spent time together. The blueberries were delicious. The visit and time spent together was extravagant. I can go back to the bushes, but it is not the same. My father s tired body gave out and he died about a year and a half after I took the picture. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
