HARRY S BOYS (PAPERBACK)

Pegasus Elliot MacKenzie Publishers, United Kingdom, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Richard Barker spent five years researching the war-time story of his father s life in occupied Belgium resulting in his novel - Harry s Boys. At the outset of WW2, Harry, an Englishman, and his two young Belgian born sons are forced to flee Brussels in the face of the advancing German Blitzkrieg. They head north hoping to escape back to England but, unable to cross the channel, they end up in a small remote fishing village in southern Brittany. As the German machine closes in on the remote village they witness a refugee ship steam by. Harry knows that going after this ship by sea is his last chance to get away and agrees an escape with a local fisherman. As they wait on the quay, Harry is told that things have changed and now there is no room in the little fishing boat for the children. Does he leave his boys behind and take this last chance to escape alone or stay with his sons and face the Nazis? A true tale of a father s heartache and his sons strength in adversity. True stories are always more moving.
