Excerpt from The Days of the Flood: Being the Substance of Two Sermons, Preached in the Parish Church of Staunton on Wye, Herefordshire, on the Occasion of the Late Inundation The reader, in these Notes, has been presented with the testimony of the Fathers, and the Opinion of those learned divines of the Church of England who have written upon the subject of Auricular Confession. No modern theologian approaches the latter either in Patrology or in Biblical Exegesis. We have, then, I repeat it, the authority of the Primitive Church and of the reformed Church of England, for saying that confession to man, though it may be a means of comfort to some, is necessary to no one, and that it is not to be numbered among the means of grace.
