To this work he was called from the pastorate of one of the greatest Baptist churches in the country five years ago. This program of 48 hours in Toronto is as illuminating an illustration of how he worked with Secretary Warburton, the man responsible for carrying out the two days programs set up for 365 days. The first was a meeting with 24 members of the Senior Leaders Corps of the gymnasium--men who become the friendly personal guides of perhaps 2000 men in their gymnasium drills and are primarily Christian personal workers. The second meeting was a conference with members of boards of directors, committee men and secretaries. The thirty men discussed with Dr. Barbour the religious work program of the Association. It was for them to see that it was carried out in a hundred forms of activity, each to be...
