Excerpt from Speech of Mr. Clay, of Kentucky, on the Measures of Compromise: Delivered in the Senate of the United States, July 22, 1850 Mr. Clay. I am pretty sure the honorable Senator is mistaken, and that it will be found so upon looking at the bill. He speaks of resolutions. I put it to the candor of the Senate, why the honorable Senator should go back to the resolutions offered by me in the beginning of the session. The question is not with regard to them, or whether they be compatible or not with the measures reported by the committee, but in respect to the bill, which differs in several important particulars from my resolutions. The committee presented such measures as were agreeable to them and with respect to the abolition of the slave trade in the District of Columbia, it was their intention simply to revive the law of Maryland, and to provide for the case of the introduction of slaves into the District as merchandise. Mr. Hunter. The Senator will pardon me. When I used the word resolutions I meant the bill, and I find, on examination, that the bill is as I have stated.
