January 21st, 1853 We have named, as the subject for our interview, some recollections of Austria. And before proceeding to speak of the Imperial Royal Empire, let me ask your judgment to relieve your minds from the cloud of prejudice which numerous ill-considered censures have cast upon this Empire. Its system of isolation has almost placed its internal policy in Chinese obscurity; but latterly, more intimate intercourse has shown us that though its whole system is opposed to constitutional freedom and enlightened liberty, still, there are few despotisms with more contented and industrious subjects, and no absolute governments in Europe more open to the wishes, and more conducive to the material well-being of its subjects. A recent State paper - memorable for many reasons, if not for diplomatic propriety, has asserted, in comparing the extent of the Austrian Empire with that of the United States, that the possessions of the House of Hapsburgh are but a patch on the earth s surface; - this might..
