Forgotten Books, 2018. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Education in France in 1916-1918 In the course of a recent manifestation in favor of physical education, organized at Bordeaux, M. Henry Pate, deputy, delivered a very interesting address, in which he stated that he and some of his colleagues in the house of deputies had decided to participate actively in the physical education and athletics of the young, in accordance with the following program: (1) To adopt a general method of rational physical instruction, based on a knowledge of the physical needs of the subject, the specialization of the work, and the attraction of the exercise. (2) To create regional schools and a superior school destined to create and to maintain a unity of methods. (3) To open these schools to the physical instructors of the army, to the monitors of the preparation for military service, and to the instructors of both sexes. (4) To direct the young toward outdoor exercises, giving them freely. (6) To obtain (a) the simplification of school programs, which are frightfully overloaded and tend to destroy energy; (b) the introduction of a physical test...

Reviews

Absolutely among the finest pdf I have got possibly read. I am quite late in start reading this one, but better then never. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.

-- Prof. Lois Cormier II

An incredibly wonderful ebook with lucid and perfect answers. It is writter in easy words instead of difficult to understand. Its been printed in an exceptionally easy way in fact it is simply following i finished reading this publication in which really modified me, modify the way i think.
