Xlibris, United States, 2010. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Have you ever been told to do something and did not do it? Then you find out that because you did not do it, many people were hurt. This book with its colorful illustrations tells of a whale who was minding his own business when he accidentally swallowed a human. He would later find out that the human was running away because God told the human to go and tell some bad people in a city to do good things. If he had not swallowed the human, the human would have drowned and the people of the city would not have been saved.
