Throw Out the Ratings: Performance Evaluations That Really Work (Paperback)

By Marsha Moulton

Promptitude Publishing, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . The performance evaluation is a powerful tool but has become a distraction in many organizations. Employees and managers become obsessed with ratings, losing focus on the bigger picture of developing employees to reach organizational goals. AchieVe is a performance evaluation system that defines performance standards, links individual goals to organizational objectives, and helps supervisors provide clear guidance to staff. Part 1 - Performance Areas: Define behaviors that form career paths for employees, reinforce core values, and improve critical organizational functions. Part 2 - Forward Reviews: Create a review form that replaces ratings with meaningful feedback and clear guidance to employees. Part 3 - Discipline Goals: Define discipline goals that provide a foundation for job performance, career advancement, and deeper purpose. Part 4 - Strategy Links: Establish a process that empowers employees to link individual goals to organizational objectives. Part 5 - Upwards Reviews: Collect meaningful information about supervisor performance by engaging employees in a trusted feedback process. Part 6 - AchieVe Success: Put into operation the core elements of the AchieVe performance management system. Marsha and William are practitioners who established AchieVe at...
