Eraden Tales and the Sword of Black Light (Paperback)

By Kristin Vincent

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Covered in thick forests, bright rivers and tall mountains of brown or white, the world of Eraden is a place touched by magic - and here in a forest far to the west, lived a young man by the name of Cadfayel. It all started with the sword his grandfather had given to him so many years back. Only in recent days, something strange had come over that blade. Streaks of dark gray ran across the once white blade. Why this was? The boy wouldn't stop until he found out. And he would; and with it begins what would be the boy's destiny: The quest to restore the blade that is Eraden's strength and battle the one who sought Eraden's conquest hundreds of years ago. Along the way, Cadfayel will meet new friends and allies such as a cheery dwarf, an obnoxious little goblin, a mysterious dark elf, the most nervous diplomat the lands had ever seen, a swordsman with a hidden past, and an adventurous, brave-hearted girl called Tenri. Friends and plenty of enemies as well;...
