Perspectives on Rehabilitation and Dementia: Think Rehab

By Mary Marshall, Faith Gibson, Suzanne Cahill, Linda Clare

Jessica Kingsley Publishers. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Perspectives on Rehabilitation and Dementia: Think Rehab, Mary Marshall, Faith Gibson, Suzanne Cahill, Linda Clare, 'The volume has ambitious scope and covers almost all potential supports and services. Most of the chapters have been written by professionals who work with people with dementia and their families, and most are British social workers and professionals allied-to-medicine (occupational therapy, physiotherapy and speech and language therapy).' - Ageing and Society 'Marshall, in her introduction, states that the aim of the book is to strengthen the link between rehabilitation and dementia and to encourage the understanding that people with dementia do benefit from rehabilitation and treatment. The book clearly meets this aim with the contributors offering convincing arguments for the conceptualisation of dementia care as rehabilitation and the potential for improvements in symptoms and in quality of life for people with dementia. The book is accessible, easy to read, informative and provides practical information and new ideas useful for practitioners, services providers, commissioners and policy makers.' - Social Policy 'This book has much to offer a range of professionals and those teaching them at post-qualifying levels.' - Journal of Interprofessional Care 'The chapters give us a...
