Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from A History of Dental and Oral Science in America At the monthly meeting, December, 1875, of the American Academy of Dental Science, Dr. D. M. Parker, member of the Centennial Board of State Managers, and President of the Academy, in the Chair, it was voted unanimously that the Academy endeavor to present in some suitable manner the claims of Dentistry - or, more properly, of Oral Science - at the then coming Centennial Exhibition at Philadelphia. A Committee was appointed to make the necessary arrangements, and weekly meetings were held from that time. In the month of February an arrangement was entered into with Mr. James E. Dexter, of New York, to collect and put into readable form such materials of historical value as could be obtained, in order to present an historical volume on American dentistry. In April an address was published in the dental periodicals calling upon the general profession for such assistance as they could render. It was as follows: To the Dental Profession. The American Academy of Dental Science, Boston, Mass.,...
