RESOLUTION SEEKING BEHAVIOR: THE DILEMMA OF OUR BROKEN YOUTH (PAPERBACK)

Outskirts Press, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .I am hopeful that by publishing this short polemical book, I will open windows to the unseen reality of the need for educational, emotional and professional guidance. No one is born broken, life just conspires with the behavioral ignorance of its characters to create continuance of conditions that can be remedy if our political system and the performance overburden educational machine form a united front to resolve and change to a prosperous society. Our broken youth is the product of these anomalies and the dysfunctional families they come from. From the moments of birth, everything that happens in life to those under certain conditions is inevitable. We needed to experience what they experienced. Our youth don t know there are ways to self-discovery that could be accomplished, the mechanisms are in place; just never applied to its full potential. If applied, this self-discovery would eventually have a profound impact in their lives, altering its direction many times. This book will concentrate on the lost souls without direction, while chronicling the journey of self-discovery our youth could have. Even though I will use a variety of simple analogies to illustrate my position, these are just whispers of the true reality of where our youth comes from, with nowhere to go; their shadow follow them attempting to escape their darkness, and the complex moments of uncertainty that mark their path toward understanding of a situation they don t know how to decipher. Our present world is too abstract and will be more as science progresses, and society and labor markets restructure to a less labor intensive and efficient operating systems. Resolution seeking behavior is diminishing due to the abstract political and social changes manifested...
