The Liturgical Press, Collegeville, Minnesota, 1998. Trade Paperback. Condition: New. First Printing. 197 Pages Indexed. Though Jeanne d'Arc could not write, her spirituality comes out clearly in her responses during her trial in Rouen. It is a total trust in God and in providential guidance in her life, and on the cleansing of conscience without which Gods will cannot be discerned. Jeanne always trusted the Church as being the gate to the kingdom of Paradise, even when the church authorities were bent on having her burnt. Fr. George H. Tavard, A.A., is from Jeanne's own province in France and as a youth visited Domremy and other sites connected with Jeanne d'Arc. As a theologian he has studied the responses she gave to her judges and the testimonies of those who knew her. He is convinced that she is an implicit message for today's women and men. A serene and sober study of the inner life of one of the most intriguing personalities in that cloud of witnesses who have gone before us. Contents in Eight Chapters: The Historical and Political Context, A Girl with No Name, A Girl with a Mission, Jeanne's Angels, Jeanne's Saints, Jeanne and the Church, The Darkening Night, and The Fire. Plus Conclusion, Bibliography, and Five Appendices: Jeanne's Womanhood Claude des Armoises, The King's Pardon, Posthumous Information, and Chronology of Relevant Information.
