The Arizona/Mexico border present day. Michala Papadopoulos is working the morning shift in her family's restaurant at Twenty-six Mile Station when Rance Saddler, an Australian/American horseman comes in for breakfast. Wearing desert boots, khaki trousers, khaki bush jacket and a plumed slouch hat, Michala is unexpectedly attracted to him and after he sits down comes over to take his order and introduce herself. During breakfast he tells her that he is the new owner of the 56,000 acre Mackenzie ranch in the Las Padres Valley and is moving his horse business there from California.
